

Dear Reader,

We are prepared for new dimensions! In line with the growth of our partner portfolio the institutional and the retail sales teams are expanding. This will give us better access to investors, increase the quality of our service and allow for a higher profile in the market, on events and in the press. max.xs team at work - don't miss out!

Kind regards,

Dr. Oliver Roll, Managing Director

Teamupdate

Sales team update

Thanks to the growing demand for max.xs' services, we are strengthening our sales teams:

Thomas Dinges has 25 years of experience in the financial industry, working as an equity sales-trader and institutional sales at Merrill Lynch, Citigroup, M.M. Warburg and others.

Thomas Gils has been working as a Senior Sales Manager for several international asset managers including Pictet Asset Management, Fleming and most recently Franklin Templeton.

Our Institutional Sales team has been strengthened with Mrs. Ilona Wachter.

To reach our desired team size, we are still looking for one more senior institutional sales and are interviewing high potential candidates.

Ilona Wachter has about 20 years of advanced knowledge in the area of Institutional Business Development working for global asset managers and in the investment banking industry. As Managing Director and Head of Germany she was successfully responsible at Muzinich & Co., Aviva Investors and BNP Paribas.

Client Service team update

We have strengthened our client service capacity by adding two experienced members:

Sibylle Schrempp has been working in the asset management industry for several years and has recently been a member of the client services team in Threadneedle's Frankfurt office.

Alexandra Flechsig has joined the max.xs team as a Marketing Manager. She has held positions at BNY Mellon Asset Management and Fortis Investments and most recently has worked as Business Manager for Silk Invest Ltd.

Addressupdate

New address: max.xs has moved

To accommodate our growth, max.xs has moved to a new office – same office compound as before, but bigger in size. Our new address: MainBuilding, Taunusanlage 19.
